

emagazine

emagazine is a quarterly magazine for Advanced Level students of English subjects. The website provides articles about novels, poetry, plays and a searchable A-Z list of writers including analysis of their work.

For access go to:

www.englishandmedia.co.uk/emag

then 'enter the student area':

Username: emagnsg

Password: spinney

Or go to: NSG Online: Online Resources area to open the library page where the website and access details are provided.

You can now search these features:

emagazine archive

Search all of the articles from past issues of the magazine.

emagazine clips

Short video clips of interviews with writers, academics and critics talking about key texts and topics for A Level English.

emagazine PDF Library

Download PDFs of past issues and read the contents online

About EMC

The English and Media Centre is an independent educational charity that provides publications on all aspects of English teaching for teachers and students of literature, language and media.

